

C317 and C329 Design multipoint thermocouples are the ultimate in strength and reliability. Produced in either type "K" or "N" calibration with high purity MgO, large 20 awg wire diameter with each ungrounded junction having a positive and a negative wire reaching the junction point. The C317, with up to 9 point

Similar to the C317, the C329 can be built with up to 4 point locations has an outside diameter of .375" (9.53mm). The protection sheath has a .049" (1.24mm) minimum wall thickness.

CROSS SECTION OF THE C317 DESIGN
MULTIPOINT